

I feel that the no call list is a great part of protection my privacy. It has been a pleasure to enjoy an evening of TV or reading without having to answer the telephone numerous times just to have telemarketers trying to sell me everything (good, bad, and ugly). Please do not change the No Call Laws as they now stand.